

In 2006, Ember was the recipient of a grant in the arts from the Joan Mitchell Foundation. Her work has shown in Cebu City of the Philippines; Berlin, Germany; Merida, Mexico; New Orleans; New York and New Mexico.

As a professional freelance artist, she continues to increase her skill set as well as widen her base of knowledge. Ember has imbued her multi-media driven works with a varicolored narrative that renders her nomadic bent of character. They explore the recesses of human consciousness and seduce by a slow and subtle design.
